Summer Reading Pre-Writing Assignment

Name: _____

Title of Book: _____

Author: _____

Directions: Use the space provided to answer the questions below.

- Write your answers in complete sentences.
- Be sure to write neatly and legibly.
- Turn in this assignment to your English teacher on the second day of class, 8/23.
- Do your best!

Character

- A character is a person or animal who takes part in a literary work.
- Almost every book revolves around one or more main characters, called protagonists.
 - The protagonist changes from the beginning of the novel to the end.

Who is the protagonist of this novel? (If perhaps there is more than one protagonist, pick!)

Characteristics and Traits

- A characteristic or trait is a feature that helps identify or distinguish a character from the other characters in the story. In a story, the characteristics of the protagonist are what set him or her apart from the other characters in the story.
- Characteristics can be external, like a character's appearance.
 - External traits can be anything from height and hair color to abilities and talents.
 - Some external traits are more important than others! Choose one that is important to the story!

Identify one of the protagonist's important external traits.

- Why is this trait important in the novel?

Characteristics and Traits

- Characteristics can be also internal, like a character's personality.
 - Internal traits are a character's emotions, beliefs, attitudes, or fears; internal traits are what make a character's personality unique.

- Some internal traits are more important than others! Choose one that is important to the story!

Identify one of the protagonist's important internal traits.

- Why is this trait important in the novel?

Goal

- In most stories, the protagonist has a goal—something that he or she wants to accomplish.
- A character can have more than one goal, and a character's goals can change throughout the story.
 - Most protagonists have one main (most important) goal.
 - A goal isn't necessarily something external or internal!

What is the protagonist's goal?

Conflict

- Most protagonists have a main (most important) conflict: an enemy, obstacle, or problem that he or she has to overcome. Many stories have more than one conflict.
- The main conflict of the story is usually what stops the protagonist from reaching his or her goal.
 - Just like the goal, the main conflict isn't necessarily something external or physical!

What is the main conflict of this novel?

How does this conflict stop the protagonist from reaching his or her goal?
