

Katz Hillel Day School of Boca Raton
Fourth Grade English
Summer Reading List, 2018

Directions: For the summer reading assignment, you must read the following two books listed below.

- Please purchase the novels instead of checking them out from the library as you will be asked to have your texts in class during the early weeks of the school year.
- For each novel, you must also complete the assignment enclosed in this summer reading packet. Once completed, you can either bring the assignment into school on the first day or email it to Mrs. Judy Weinstock, 4th grade teacher, to jweinstock@hilleldayschool.org
- Enjoy your reading!
- Have a fantastic summer!

1. The Lemonade War by Jacqueline Davies (ISBN: 0547237657)

While Evan Treski and his younger sister Jessie get along well in many ways, that changes the summer he learns that she will be skipping third grade to be in his fourth grade class. And so they begin a lemonade war over which sibling can make the most money during the last week before school. As the battleground heats up, there really is no telling who will win – and even more important, if their fight will ever end.

2. Tales of a Fourth Grade Nothing by Judy Blume (ISBN: 0142408810)

In this classic story, Peter Hatcher feels like a fourth grade “nothing” since his brother Fudge causes problems for him all the time; Fudge always gets away with things at home. So Peter decides that it is time to make his parents pay more attention to him.
