

Katz Hillel Day School of Boca Raton Seventh Grade English Summer Reading List, 2020

Directions: For the summer reading assignment, you must read one of the following three books, as well as, an independent novel selection.

- Use the provided list to make your selection.
- Please purchase the novels instead of checking them out from the library as you will be asked to have your texts in class during the early weeks of the school year.
- Be a careful reader to prepare yourself for the literary activities we will engage in prior to the in-class essay assessments as well as writing assignments administered on the books you have read.
- For each novel selected, you must also complete the pre-writing assignment enclosed in this summer reading packet.
- Enjoy your reading!
- Have a fantastic summer!

1. Swindle by Gordon Korman (ISBN: 0439903459)

When a mean collector named Swindle cons Griffin Bing out of his most valuable baseball card, Griffin must put together a band of misfits to break into Swindle's compound and recapture the card. With many things standing in their way, Griffin and his team are going to get back what is rightfully his.

2. Hoot by Carl Hiaasen (ISBN: 0440419395)

Roy, who is new to his small Florida community, becomes involved in another boy's attempt to save a colony of burrowing owls from a proposed construction site.

3. Tangerine by Edward Bloor (ISBN: 0152057803)

Twelve-year-old Paul, who lives in the shadow of his football hero brother Erik, fights for the right to play soccer despite his near blindness, and he slowly begins to remember the incident that damaged his eyesight.

In addition to completing one of the required reading novels, students will read a book of choice and should be prepared for an in-class writing activity when they return to class. All students must use the following parameters as a guide for choosing an appropriate title. The book choice must have never been read before, and be at least 180 pages or more.

Parents are required to approve their child's choice before they begin reading.

Seventh Grade English

Summer Reading Pre-Writing Assignment

---

Name: _____

Title of Book: _____

Author: _____

Directions: Use the space provided to answer the questions below.

- Write your answers in complete sentences.
- Be sure to write neatly and legibly.
- Turn in this assignment to your English teacher on the second day of class.
- Do your best!

Character

- A character is a person or animal who takes part in a literary work.
- Almost every book revolves around one or more main characters, called protagonists.
  - The protagonist changes from the beginning of the novel to the end.

Who is the protagonist of this novel? (If perhaps there is more than one protagonist, pick!)

---

Characteristics and Traits

- A characteristic or trait is a feature that helps identify or distinguish a character from the other characters in the story. In a story, the characteristics of the protagonist are what set him or her apart from the other characters in the story.
- Characteristics can be external, like a character's appearance.
  - External traits can be anything from height and hair color to abilities and talents.
  - Some external traits are more important than others! Choose one that is important to the story!

Identify one of the protagonist's important external traits.

---

- Why is this trait important in the novel?
-

Characteristics and Traits

- Characteristics can be also internal, like a character's personality.
  - Internal traits are a character's emotions, beliefs, attitudes, or fears; internal traits are what make a character's personality unique.
  - Some internal traits are more important than others! Choose one that is important to the story!

Identify one of the protagonist's important internal traits.

-
- Why is this trait important in the novel?
-

Goal

- In most stories, the protagonist has a goal—something that he or she wants to accomplish.
- A character can have more than one goal, and a character's goals can change throughout the story.
  - Most protagonists have one main (most important) goal.
  - A goal isn't necessarily something external or internal!

What is the protagonist's goal?

---

Why is the goal important to the protagonist?

---

---

What is stopping the protagonist from reaching this goal?

---

---

---

Conflict

- Most protagonists have a main (most important) conflict: an enemy, obstacle, or problem that he or she has to overcome. Many stories have more than one conflict.
- The main conflict of the story is usually what stops the protagonist from reaching his or her goal.
  - Just like the goal, the main conflict isn't necessarily something external or physical!

What is the main conflict of this novel?

---

How does this conflict stop the protagonist from reaching his or her goal?

---

Resolution

- In most stories, the protagonist's conflicts and experiences cause him or her to change or learn a valuable lesson. The part of the story where the character learns this valuable lesson or realizes that he or she has changed is called the resolution.
  - The resolution is the final outcome of the story.
  - It's where all the loose ends are tied up!

Describe how the protagonist changes from the beginning to the end of the story.

---

---

---

Does the protagonist learn any important lessons? If so, what?

---

---

---

Theme

- The theme of the story is a broad statement about life or human nature. The theme is not what happens in the story (that's the plot!) – the theme is why it matters.
  - Ask yourself what's the author's point – why did he or she write the story?
  - Consider what the protagonist learns in the story; often that's a clue to the story's theme!
  - A story can have more than one theme, but most stories have one main theme.

What do you think is the main theme of this novel?

---

---

Why do you think this is the theme?

---

---

Seventh Grade English

Summer Reading Pre-Writing Assignment

---

Name: _____

Title of Book: _____

Author: _____

Directions: Use the space provided to answer the questions below.

- Write your answers in complete sentences.
- Be sure to write neatly and legibly.
- Turn in this assignment to your English teacher on the second day of class.
- Do your best!

Character

- A character is a person or animal who takes part in a literary work.
- Almost every book revolves around one or more main characters, called protagonists.
  - The protagonist changes from the beginning of the novel to the end.

Who is the protagonist of this novel? (If perhaps there is more than one protagonist, pick!)

---

Characteristics and Traits

- A characteristic or trait is a feature that helps identify or distinguish a character from the other characters in the story. In a story, the characteristics of the protagonist are what set him or her apart from the other characters in the story.
- Characteristics can be external, like a character's appearance.
  - External traits can be anything from height and hair color to abilities and talents.
  - Some external traits are more important than others! Choose one that is important to the story!

Identify one of the protagonist's important external traits.

---

- Why is this trait important in the novel?
-

Characteristics and Traits

- Characteristics can be also internal, like a character's personality.
  - Internal traits are a character's emotions, beliefs, attitudes, or fears; internal traits are what make a character's personality unique.
  - Some internal traits are more important than others! Choose one that is important to the story!

Identify one of the protagonist's important internal traits.

-
- Why is this trait important in the novel?
-

Goal

- In most stories, the protagonist has a goal—something that he or she wants to accomplish.
- A character can have more than one goal, and a character's goals can change throughout the story.
  - Most protagonists have one main (most important) goal.
  - A goal isn't necessarily something external or internal!

What is the protagonist's goal?

---

Why is the goal important to the protagonist?

---

---

What is stopping the protagonist from reaching this goal?

---

---

---

Conflict

- Most protagonists have a main (most important) conflict: an enemy, obstacle, or problem that he or she has to overcome. Many stories have more than one conflict.
- The main conflict of the story is usually what stops the protagonist from reaching his or her goal.
  - Just like the goal, the main conflict isn't necessarily something external or physical!

What is the main conflict of this novel?

---

How does this conflict stop the protagonist from reaching his or her goal?

---

---

Resolution

- In most stories, the protagonist's conflicts and experiences cause him or her to change or learn a valuable lesson. The part of the story where the character learns this valuable lesson or realizes that he or she has changed is called the resolution.
  - The resolution is the final outcome of the story.
  - It's where all the loose ends are tied up!

Describe how the protagonist changes from the beginning to the end of the story.

---

---

---

Does the protagonist learn any important lessons? If so, what?

---

---

---

Theme

- The theme of the story is a broad statement about life or human nature. The theme is not what happens in the story (that's the plot!) – the theme is why it matters.
  - Ask yourself what's the author's point – why did he or she write the story?
  - Consider what the protagonist learns in the story; often that's a clue to the story's theme!
  - A story can have more than one theme, but most stories have one main theme.

What do you think is the main theme of this novel?

---

---

Why do you think this is the theme?

---

---