

Katz Hillel Day School of Boca Raton
Sixth Grade English
Summer Reading List, 2021

Directions: For the summer reading assignment, you must read one of the following three books, as well as, an independent novel selection.

- Use the provided list to make your selection.
 - Please purchase the novels instead of checking them out from the library as you will be asked to have your texts in class during the early weeks of the school year.
 - Be a careful reader to prepare yourself for the literary activities we will engage in prior to the in-class essay assessments as well as writing assignments on the books you have read.
 - For each novel selected, you must also complete the pre-writing assignment enclosed in this summer reading packet.
 - Enjoy your reading!
 - Have a fantastic summer!
-
1. Wonder by R.J. Palacio (ISBN: 978-0552565974) Born with facial differences that, up until now, have prevented him from going to a mainstream school, Auggie Pullman becomes the most unlikely of heroes when he enters the local fifth grade. As his family, his new classmates, and the larger community all struggle to discover their compassion and acceptance, Auggie's extraordinary journey will unite them and prove you can't blend in when you were born to stand out.
 2. Hatchet by Gary Paulsen (ISBN:978-1416936473) In this novel, thirteen year old Brian is flying on a bush plane when the pilot suddenly has a heart attack and dies. Brian manages to keep the plane level until it crashes into a lake. ... Brian's mother gives him a hatchet as a parting gift and asks him to try it on his belt.
 3. The Great Good Thing by Roderick Townley (ISBN: 0689853289)
Sylvie has been a twelve-year-old princess for eighty years, ever since her very own fairytale was first printed. However, she only gets to play her part when a reader flips through the pages of her book and starts the action. Sylvie eventually makes the dangerous discovery that she can travel beyond the pages of her book and into the dreams of her readers. But when a mischievous boy burns the pages of Sylvie's book, how will she handle herself in the dreams of her most devoted reader, Claire?

In addition to completing one of the required reading novels, students will read a book of choice and should be prepared for an in-class writing activity when they return to class. All students must use the following parameters as a guide for choosing an appropriate title. The book choice must have never been read before, and be at least 150 pages or more.

Parents are required to approve their child's choice before they begin reading.

Sixth Grade English

Summer Reading Pre-Writing Assignment

Name: _____

Title of Book: _____

Author: _____

Directions: Use the space provided to answer the questions below.

- Write your answers in complete sentences.
- Be sure to write neatly and legibly.
- Turn in this assignment to your English teacher on the second day of class, 8/24.
- Do your best!

Character

- A character is a person or animal who takes part in a literary work.
- Almost every book revolves around one or more main characters, called protagonists.
 - The protagonist changes from the beginning of the novel to the end.

Who is the protagonist of this novel? (If perhaps there is more than one protagonist, pick!)

Characteristics and Traits

- A characteristic or trait is a feature that helps identify or distinguish a character from the other characters in the story. In a story, the characteristics of the protagonist are what set him or her apart from the other characters in the story.
- Characteristics can be external, like a character's appearance.
 - External traits can be anything from height and hair color to abilities and talents.
 - Some external traits are more important than others! Choose one that is important to the story!

Identify one of the protagonist's important external traits.

- Why is this trait important in the novel?
-

Characteristics and Traits

- Characteristics can be also internal, like a character's personality.
 - Internal traits are a character's emotions, beliefs, attitudes, or fears; internal traits are what make a character's personality unique.
 - Some internal traits are more important than others! Choose one that is important to the story!

Identify one of the protagonist's important internal traits.

- Why is this trait important in the novel?
-

Goal

- In most stories, the protagonist has a goal—something that he or she wants to accomplish.
- A character can have more than one goal, and a character's goals can change throughout the story.
 - Most protagonists have one main (most important) goal.
 - A goal isn't necessarily something external or internal!

What is the protagonist's goal?

Conflict

- Most protagonists have a main (most important) conflict: an enemy, obstacle, or problem that he or she has to overcome. Many stories have more than one conflict.
- The main conflict of the story is usually what stops the protagonist from reaching his or her goal.
 - Just like the goal, the main conflict isn't necessarily something external or physical!

What is the main conflict of this novel?

How does this conflict stop the protagonist from reaching his or her goal?

Sixth Grade English

Summer Reading Pre-Writing Assignment

Name: _____

Title of Book: _____

Author: _____

Directions: Use the space provided to answer the questions below.

- Write your answers in complete sentences.
- Be sure to write neatly and legibly.
- Turn in this assignment to your English teacher on the second day of class, 8/24.
- Do your best!

Character

- A character is a person or animal who takes part in a literary work.
- Almost every book revolves around one or more main characters, called protagonists.
 - The protagonist changes from the beginning of the novel to the end.

Who is the protagonist of this novel? (If perhaps there is more than one protagonist, pick!)

Characteristics and Traits

- A characteristic or trait is a feature that helps identify or distinguish a character from the other characters in the story. In a story, the characteristics of the protagonist are what set him or her apart from the other characters in the story.
- Characteristics can be external, like a character's appearance.
 - External traits can be anything from height and hair color to abilities and talents.
 - Some external traits are more important than others! Choose one that is important to the story!

Identify one of the protagonist's important external traits.

- Why is this trait important in the novel?
-

Characteristics and Traits

- Characteristics can be also internal, like a character's personality.
 - Internal traits are a character's emotions, beliefs, attitudes, or fears; internal traits are what make a character's personality unique.
 - Some internal traits are more important than others! Choose one that is important to the story!

Identify one of the protagonist's important internal traits.

- Why is this trait important in the novel?
-

Goal

- In most stories, the protagonist has a goal—something that he or she wants to accomplish.
- A character can have more than one goal, and a character's goals can change throughout the story.
 - Most protagonists have one main (most important) goal.
 - A goal isn't necessarily something external or internal!

What is the protagonist's goal?

Conflict

- Most protagonists have a main (most important) conflict: an enemy, obstacle, or problem that he or she has to overcome. Many stories have more than one conflict.
- The main conflict of the story is usually what stops the protagonist from reaching his or her goal.
 - Just like the goal, the main conflict isn't necessarily something external or physical!

What is the main conflict of this novel?

How does this conflict stop the protagonist from reaching his or her goal?
