

Curriculum Coordinator Opportunity: Forge the Future of Learning at Katz Hillel Day School!

Location: The heart of the thriving Boca Raton, FL.

Who? Katz Hillel Day School of Boca Raton (KHDS) - Where innovation meets tradition in the pursuit of educational excellence.

Role: Full-Time Curriculum Coordinator - The Architect of Academic Excellence

Shape Our Educational Blueprint: Katz Hillel Day School seeks a visionary Curriculum Coordinator, someone passionate about crafting a dynamic, integrated, and impactful curriculum that nurtures the minds and spirits of our students. If you're adept at bridging the worlds of Jewish and general studies, creating cohesive educational experiences that inspire both teachers and students, and are eager to lead our curriculum development into the future, your mission lies with us. Join our team and play a pivotal role in sculpting an educational journey that is both enriching and enlightening.

Your Mission:

- Curriculum Visionary: Oversee the development, evaluation, and continuous improvement of our curriculum, ensuring it aligns with our school's mission, values, and academic standards.
- Educational Innovator: Implement cutting-edge teaching strategies and technologies, integrating best practices that enhance learning across Jewish and general studies.
- Teacher Empowerer: Provide ongoing support and professional development to our faculty, fostering an environment of growth, collaboration, and excellence.
- Resource Architect: Identify, evaluate, and facilitate the use of curricular resources and materials that enrich our educational offerings and support our teaching staff.
- Data-Driven Strategist: Utilize assessment data to inform curriculum decisions, ensuring our educational goals are met and our students are thriving academically.
- Collaborative Leader: Work closely with teachers, administration, and the wider school community to foster a cohesive educational vision and a culture of open communication.

We're Seeking Someone Who:

- Has a deep passion for education, with a master's degree in Education, Curriculum and Instruction, or a related field.
- Boasts a proven track record in curriculum development and teacher support, preferably in a Jewish day school or similar educational setting.
- Demonstrates exceptional leadership, organizational, and communication skills, capable of inspiring teachers and aligning diverse educational initiatives.
- Is innovative and forward-thinking, with a strong understanding of current educational trends, technologies, and pedagogical strategies.

- Values collaboration and is adept at building relationships across all levels of a school community.

Why KHDS is Your Next Chapter:

- Play a central role in shaping the educational experience of our students, crafting a curriculum that inspires lifelong learning and a deep connection to Jewish values.
- Enjoy competitive compensation and benefits, acknowledging your critical role in driving our school's academic success.
- Thrive in a supportive, mission-driven environment that values your expertise, creativity, and leadership in education.
- Experience the satisfaction of making a tangible impact on the development of our curriculum and the growth of our faculty.

Join Our Educational Journey: If you're ready to take the helm as our Curriculum Coordinator and lead our curriculum into a future of excellence and innovation, we're eager to hear from you. Please send your resume and a cover letter detailing your vision for curriculum development and your experience in educational leadership to jobs@hilleldayschool.org.

About Our School: At Katz Hillel Day School of Boca Raton, we pride ourselves on creating a nurturing family atmosphere intertwined with a high degree of professionalism, where every member is dedicated to fostering a vibrant learning environment.
