

Middle School Social Studies Teacher Wanted: Navigate the Past and Shape the Future at Katz Hillel Day School!

Location: The culturally rich and vibrant community of Boca Raton, FL.

Who? Katz Hillel Day School of Boca Raton (KHDS) - Where history and humanity meet to inspire the leaders of tomorrow.

Role: Full-Time Middle School Social Studies Teacher - The Guide Through Time

Explore the World Through Education:

Katz Hillel Day School is searching for a Middle School Social Studies Teacher who brings history, geography, and cultures to life. If you have a passion for educating young minds about the complexities of our world, fostering critical thinking, and developing informed and responsible citizens, your classroom awaits. Join us as we journey through time and across continents, exploring the events and ideas that shape our world and preparing our students to lead with knowledge and empathy.

Your Educational Expedition:

- Cultural Curator: Deliver engaging and thought-provoking lessons that cover a wide range of social studies topics, from ancient civilizations to modern global issues.
- Critical Thinking Coach: Encourage students to analyze, question, and debate historical and contemporary issues, developing their abilities to think critically and articulate their ideas clearly.
- Innovative Instructor: Utilize a variety of teaching methods and digital tools to make social studies relevant and exciting for middle school students.
- Student Advocate: Guide students in understanding their role in the community and the world, encouraging active participation and civic engagement.
- Collaborative Educator: Work closely with colleagues within and across departments to create interdisciplinary learning experiences that deepen students' understanding of social studies and its connections to their lives.

We're Seeking a Teacher Who:

- Holds a passion for social studies with a degree in History, Social Sciences, Education, or a related field.
- Has experience (preferred but not required) engaging middle school students in thoughtful, meaningful learning about social studies.
- Demonstrates creativity and flexibility in teaching approaches, capable of capturing the interest and imagination of young adolescents.
- Possesses strong organizational and communication skills, with the ability to foster a classroom environment that is both respectful and intellectually stimulating.
- Is committed to ongoing professional development and innovation in teaching practices.

Why Teach at KHDS?

- Impactful Role: Directly influence our students' understanding of the world and their place within it.
- Dynamic Community: Join a team of educators who are passionate about bringing learning to life and are supported by a community that values education.
- Professional Growth: Benefit from professional development opportunities that enhance your skills and knowledge as an educator.
- Competitive Compensation: Receive a competitive salary and benefits package that reflects the important role you play in our educational mission.

Ready to Teach and Inspire?

If you're eager to guide our students through the fascinating world of social studies, we'd love to hear from you. Please send your resume and a cover letter that outlines your teaching philosophy and your experiences in education to jobs@hilleldayschool.org.
